Community Update regarding the City of Aurora Attorney:

Alan Miller is a life-long resident of Dearborn County. He was raised in Greendale by his parents, Norman (Alan) and Anna Miller of Greendale. Alan is a graduate of Lawrenceburg High School, Indiana University and the Northern Kentucky University Chase College of Law. Alan lives in Aurora with his wife of 10 years, Kyle (Thayer) and their daughter, Ryan.

Alan's childhood dream was to become an attorney. He began his practice in 2005, founded Miller Law LLC in 2013 then expanding the practice in October of 2016 with Miller Flannery Law located at 318 Walnut Street, Lawrenceburg, IN. Through his career, he has learned how to manage a successful small business and has had the pleasure of working with the people of Southeastern Indiana to reach resolutions to tough problems.

Alan is an active member of the community. It is his priority to "give back" and lead by example. He has served as a volunteer with Big Brothers/Big Sisters, Kiwanis Club, and Legal Volunteers of Southeastern Indiana. He previously served as Vice-President of the Heart House Homeless Shelter Board of Directors and President of the Dearborn-Ohio County Bar Association. He currently serves as Vice-President of the AIM/Young Professionals of Dearborn County.

"I've been incredibly excited about the opportunity to serve the citizens of Aurora, Mayor Hastings and the members of our City Council. Aurora is my home. I am personally invested in its future for not only myself, but my family. I want to work with the city leadership to ensure that we achieve our goal of making Aurora the best it can be." Alan Miller may be reached at the City of Aurora, Attn: Alan Miller, P.O. Box 158, Aurora, IN. 47001.
