

City of Aurora Congratulates Stedman Machine Company

Indiana Safety and Health Achievement Recognition Program (INSHARP) Recipient

This year Stedman Machine Company earned certification as an INSHARP workplace. Stedman Machine Company is the first workplace in Dearborn County to achieve INSHARP certification, and are recognized for excellence in workplace safety and health.

To participate in INSHARP, a company must develop, implement and maintain an exemplary worker safety and health management system and pass a comprehensive safety and health evaluation by the Indiana Department of Labor. In addition, the facility's occupational injury and illness rates must be below the national industry average for their respective industry. Fewer than fifty Indiana companies have achieved INSHARP certification.

Stedman Machine Company has been based in Southeastern Indiana for the last 182 years. Nathan R. Stedman began his company by producing castings and machinery for anything from cotton gins, farm equipment, machine tools and hay presses, to stoves and saw mills. Today Stedman, as an affiliate of Eagle Crusher Company, designs, manufactures and sells a complete line of size-reduction equipment serving multiple markets.
