Oddities was founded by Chip Farrell and Blake Haag in November 2016. Mr. Farrell has been a long time resident and entrepreneur. It started in 1991 with his first business, Multiple Machining Inc. in Dillsboro, Indiana. Since 2005, Chip and Blake have ran an online industrial equipment business, DC Supply. Through this business they began to acquire a variety of overstock items which required a brick and mortar store, in addition to their online business.

The store offers an array of new, brand name home goods, furniture, and much more at discounted prices. Oddities is not only filled with new overstock items, they also offer a complete line from Coaster Fine Furniture. Stop in and browse through their Coaster kiosk. The inventory is always revolving, so it's like a different store every time you visit.
