Hello and welcome to Aurora! Whether you're a resident or a visitor, we're glad you're here! The City of Aurora sits along a regional corridor in vibrant Dearborn County, Indiana, next to our sister cities of Lawrenceburg, Greendale and Rising Sun. Located 45 minutes outside Cincinnati, Ohio and Boone County, Kentucky, Aurora is also within 1.5 hours from Indianapolis, Dayton, Lexington and Louisville. Not only are we close to major metropolitan areas, Aurora is conveniently located next to the Ohio River, multiple interstates and featured sites with rail access.

Aurora's community vision is based on our "Big 5 Ideas," which highlight Downtown Revitalization, Neighborhood Revitalization, Tourism/Outdoor Recreation, Riverfront Development and Quality of Life with Community Connections. Following major utility infrastructure and capital improvement projects, Aurora looks to continue to reinvest into our core assets – the Ohio River and our historic downtown.

Aurora has such an abundance to offer to all. We are a scenic and historic river city. The City of Aurora has seen 35 new businesses open in the last two years as part of our Downtown Revitalization efforts with room for your business to join the Downtown family. There is truly something for everyone to enjoy in Aurora, including several parks, trails, our Aurora Recreation Community Center (ARCC) and other recreational opportunities.

Having celebrated Aurora's 200th Bicentennial Anniversary in 2019, it's safe to say Aurora is here for the "long haul." In Aurora, we still proudly carry the small town feel that has been lost in so many areas. Community dances and pitch-in picnics add to our small town appeal. Every October, the City of Aurora along with the Aurora Lions, hosts the Aurora Farmers Fair. Our 2019 Aurora Community Picnic on Second Street was truly a Norman Rockwell moment and we hope that you'll join us for the next one in 2020 as well!

The City of Aurora has an exciting future for local business investment, quality of life enhancements, growth strategies and population retention options for families or companies looking to move to or expand within our neighborhood community. Come enjoy the historic charm of the City of Aurora. Whether you are looking to build your dream home overlooking the mighty Ohio River or dreaming of owning your own unique shop, the City of Aurora is your kind of place. Check out our many offerings at www.aurora.in.us for more information. Visit and stay a while – or a lifetime!

Warmest regards,
